Market Recovery Resolution (2009-2010)

Whereas the members of Local 142 knowing of the economical downturn in today's market and not wanting to lose more percentage of the contracting work coming from the private sector.

Whereas the members of Local 142 have pledged and always pledge to help procure employment for our fellow brothers.

Whereas Local 142 Market Recovery Program has proven to work and employ members of Local 142 and proven to be fair to all members of Local 142.

Resolved that the funding for Market Recovery be increased to two percent (2%) of the hourly wage for all members of Local 142 and others working under the Collective Bargaining Agreement between Plumber's and Pipe Fitters Local 142 and MCA-SMACNA of San Antonio, Inc.

Resolved that the same rules for Market Recovery that were in place before reducing the funding be reinstated.

Resolved that funding for Market Recovery upon approval by the membership of Local 142 at the February 2010 regular membership meeting start on March 1, 2010. Pledging money for jobs will start when fund is solvent and agreed upon by the Market Recovery Committee.

Resolved that said Market Recovery Plan is Plumbers and Pipe Fitter's plan, and only members of Local 142 will have say in plan's operation.

Respectfully submitted
